Committee reports of Anti-Ragging Committee

Report of Anti-Ragging Week , April 2023

Date: 3rd January 2023

Location: D Y Patil Dental School, Lohegaon, Pune.

Organized by: Anti-Ragging Committee, D Y Patil Dental School, Pune.

Executive Summary:

The Anti-Ragging Workshop held on 3rd January 2023 in D Y Patil Dental School, Pune aimed to raise awareness and promote a ragging-free environment among undergraduate students.

The celebrations began with an orientation lecture by the Anti-Ragging Committee on, followed by engaging activities such as a slogan competition, poster competition, logo designing, and an essay writing competition throughout the week that followed and culminated with a workshop which saw eminent guest speakers addressing the students . These activities successfully educated and inspired students to actively combat ragging on campus.

Introduction:

Ragging remains a critical issue in educational institutions, negatively impacting students' physical and emotional well-being. To address this concern, D Y Patil Dental School, Pune organized a comprehensive Anti-Ragging Workshop. The workshop provided students with knowledge about the consequences of ragging and encouraged them to take an active role in preventing such incidents.

Activities and Outcomes:

Orientation Lecture by Anti-Ragging Committee:

The orientation day began with a highly informative and interactive orientation lecture delivered by the institution's Anti-Ragging Committee. The lecture included the following key points:

Understanding Ragging: The committee provided a detailed definition of ragging, ensuring students had a clear understanding of what constitutes this behavior.

Consequences of Ragging: The legal, academic, and personal consequences of engaging in ragging were discussed, using real-life case studies to highlight the severity of these consequences.

Preventive Measures: Strategies for preventing ragging were emphasized, with a focus on the roles of students, faculty, and the institution in creating a safe and respectful campus environment.

Reporting Mechanisms: Students were educated about the various channels available for reporting ragging incidents, emphasizing anonymity and confidentiality.

The orientation lecture effectively raised awareness among the attendees and instilled a sense of responsibility.

Slogan Competition:

Students were invited to participate in a slogan competition that encouraged creative thinking and engagement with the anti-ragging message. The competition generated numerous catchy slogans promoting a ragging-free campus.

Poster Competition:

The poster competition allowed students to express their thoughts and ideas visually. The posters conveyed powerful messages against ragging, contributing to the creation of a visually impactful campaign.

Logo Designing:

The logo designing competition aimed to create an emblem that symbolized the institution's commitment to eradicating ragging. The winning design will be used in future anti-ragging campaigns.

Essay Writing Competition:

An essay writing competition encouraged students to delve deeper into the topic of ragging. It provided a platform for them to express their thoughts and opinions on this issue and its impact on the academic community.

Guest Lecture:

The Anti-Ragging Committee, D Y Patil Dental School, Pune hosted a guest lecture on the critical topic of "Anti-Ragging" featuring Dr. Kamaljeet Kaur Siddhu (Director of D.Y. Patil Technical Campus, Ajeenkya D Y Patil Knowledge City, Pune) and Dr Rahul Hegde (Executive Committee Member, Dental Council of India) as the distinguished speaker.

Dr. Kamaljeet Kaur Siddhu, brought her expertise and experience to enlighten undergraduate students about the importance of preventing ragging in educational institutions, the psychology behind the same and the laws to be abided by.

Dr Rahul Hegde emphasized that prevention is key to eradicating ragging. He discussed strategies to prevent ragging incidents, highlighting the roles of students, faculty, and institutional authorities in fostering a culture of inclusivity and respect.

Conclusion:

The Anti-Ragging Week at D Y Patil Dental School was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of raising awareness and promoting a ragging-free campus environment. Through informative lectures and engaging activities such as slogan and poster competitions, logo designing, and essay writing, students were empowered to actively combat ragging and contribute to a safer and more respectful academic community. This workshop marks a significant step towards eradicating ragging from our institution.

Standard Operating Procedure

POSH ACT

As per regulations and guidelines mentioned in Prevention of Sexual Harassment act 2013 Dr D Y Patil Dental school is committed to enforce the regulation so that all the teaching and non-teaching staff and girl students feel safe and secure on the campus.

The three major elements of POSH ACT are –Prevention, Prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment at the workplace.

While exercising the principles of natural justice, ICC needs to follow Standard Operating Procedures (SOP).

If and when any complaints is received ICC will follow the following SOPs—

- 1) Complaint of sexual harassment – Any aggrieved employee may make in writing a complaint of sexual harassment to ICC within a period of three months from the date of incidence and in case of repeated incidences.
- 2) Conciliation- ICC may initiate an inquiry and if requested by aggrieved woman employee. ICC may take steps to settle the dispute between her and the respondent through conciliation. The matter is thus resolved by mutual consent.
- 3) Inquiry into the complaint –In the absence of conciliation ICC proceeds to make inquiry into the complaint by issuing notice to the Respondent within seven days of receiving the written complaint. The respondent or the accused will have ten days thereafter to reply in writing. ICC shall summon the eyewitness and examine the witness on oath, if available and needed documents are produced by witness or complainant. ICC shall record its findings and observations and based on which it may submit conclusions and recommendations to the employer for further action.
- 4) Determination of compensation – While recommending compensation ICC shall consider the mental trauma and suffering plus the medical expenses incurred by the victim for physical or psychiatric treatment caused to aggrieved woman. ICC shall also regard to loss in the career opportunity. The financial status of the accused may also be considered for lump sum compensation.
- 5) Action during the pendency of PoSH inquiry- ICC may recommend to the employer- to transfer the aggrieved woman or the accused to any other workplace or grant leave for three months till inquiry is completed.
