Midcourse improvement of performance of students

Our institution offers students opportunities for midcourse enhancements in their academic performance. Enhancing student achievement demands ongoing dedication throughout the academic year. Students are afforded the chance to elevate their performance in both formative and summative assessments. Coordinated endeavors enable students to enhance their performance and attain their desired outcomes.

Policy document on option claimed by the institute

1. Timely administration of CIE

- € The institution administers three internal examinations in accordance with the directives set forth by the university.
- € The examination timetable is disseminated via the academic calendar at the commencement of the academic session.
- € Students are duly informed of the examination schedule through circulars, prominently displayed on the notice board.
- € Upon completion of each clinical rotation, practical examinations are administered to evaluate their clinical acumen. Additionally, mock examinations for postgraduate students are held towards the conclusion of the academic year.

2. On time assessment and feedback

- € The answer are assessed within a timeframe of 10 days following the examination, ensuring impartial evaluation.
- € Evaluated answer papers are then distributed to the students for their personal review and assessment.
- € Additionally, provisions for rechecking are extended to all students.
- € If no grievances are reported following this process, students are requested to sign the answer sheets, indicating their acknowledgment.
